

TEEN BOOK LIST REQUIREMENTS

Teen Book Lists are two page documents that highlight books under a specific theme.

You can see sample book lists here!

The front page is a grid of the titles' book covers, neatly arranged, for patrons to view. The back page is a typed list of those same titles with the authors' names and availability.

MPL = available at the Main Library; BAB = available at the Bellevue Avenue Branch

Digital = available digitally, as an eBook or eAudiobook

BCCLS = available for request from the larger BCCLS Library Consortium;

only used if the book is not available at MPL or BAB

It is up to you to search the Library Catalog and determine your books' availabilities. They do not have to be at the Main Library or Bellevue Avenue Branch, but they MUST be available through the BCCLS Consortium or as eBooks/eAudiobooks.

RULES AND GUIDELINES:

- The use of AI is NOT permitted in the creation of your book list.
- You can have a cohesive theme (YA Books about Dragons) or just feature your favorite books. You can include fiction or nonfiction titles. It's completely up to you!
- The book list must be your original idea! You can do research for inspiration, but do not copy from other libraries or existing publications.
- You can include non-YA titles on your list, though they must be appropriate for teen readers.
- Please avoid including books assigned for class, unless you feel a significant, personal connection to them.
- Stop by the Teen Room and review the Book List Binder to make sure your idea hasn't already been done and that your books aren't already featured in other lists.
- You can use whatever editor you feel most comfortable with, such as Canva or Google Docs.
- Your book list must be neatly formatted and easy to read. Use legible fonts and simple graphics. Don't make it too busy and avoid full color backgrounds.
- The book covers should be the same size and neatly arranged. Don't use pixelated or grainy images.
- Spell check your list! Make sure all the book titles and author names are correct.
